A woman with dark hair styled in an updo, wearing a vibrant pink strapless dress with a gold belt and gold jewelry, stands against a wall covered in intricate, raised gold patterns. She has her arms outstretched, touching the wall. The lighting is dramatic, highlighting the textures of the wall and her dress.

“Art is not a study of positive reality, it is the seeking for ideal truth”
“El arte no es un estudio de la realidad positiva, es la búsqueda de la verdad ideal”

- John Ruskin
